How you can help

Mission Oak Cliff needs picnic items (hot dogs, buns, chips, popsicles, drinks, etc.) for a Kick Off to Summer event on May 28. Contact ashley@cliff temple.org for more information.

Children's Ministry Classroom Support: This volunteer helps aid the lead teacher in hands-on and engaging activities that happen in the classroom through our monthly learning stations. We utilize these volunteers with ages Pre-K through 5th grade. Contact emilie@cliff temple.org.

Toddler Rotation Teacher: In our toddler classroom we have teachers who rotate in each Sunday to lead our 2-4 year olds in creative activities, play, and circle time as they learn and grow with Jesus. Contact emilie@cliff temple.org.

Sunday School Check-In: Do you love to greet and welcome families? Serving as a check-in volunteer gives you the opportunity to be the first face our children see each Sunday. This volunteer helps guide families through the simple electronic check-in process and helps new families to register their children for the first time. Contact emilie@cliff temple.org.

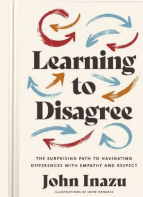

Missions Class Volunteer: On Wednesday nights our children learn about missionaries who travel around the world teaching others about Jesus. Each month they learn about the different cultures of these countries including how they play, eat, and live. This volunteer supports the classroom by helping run one of the learning rotations each week. Contact emilie@cliff temple.org.

The Community Orchestra is looking for members. Contact talye@cliff temple.org.

Learning to Disagree

LEARNING TO DISAGREE JOHN INAZU

The surprising path to navigating difference with empathy and respect

Monday, May 6

7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

Cliff Temple Baptist Church

Institute for Faith & Learning
at Baylor University.

Are you discouraged by our divided, angry culture, where even listening to a different perspective sometimes feels impossible? If so, you're not alone and it doesn't have to be this way. In his book Learning to Disagree, John Inazu reveals a surprising path to learning how to disagree in ways that build new bridges with our neighbors, co-workers, and loved ones--and help us find better ways to live joyfully in a complex society.

John Inazu is the Sally D. Danforth Distinguished Professor of Law and Religion at Washington University in St. Louis. He teaches criminal law, law and religion, and various First Amendment courses. He writes and speaks frequently to general audiences about pluralism, free speech, religious freedom and other issues. John has written three books and published opinion pieces in the Washington Post, The Atlantic, Chicago Tribune, LA Times, USA Today, Newsweek, and CNN.
